Data Protection and Privacy

Information we learn from our customers enables us to continually improve the service we offer, including improving the ranges of products we sell, the information we give on our Web-Site and special offers. However, we take privacy of information relating to our customers very seriously and comply with all UK data protection laws in collecting, storing and using this information.

What personal information we will gather about you

Using this Web Site, contacting us and purchasing products from us, both on-line and over the telephone, may involve you giving us certain information about yourself, including your name and address, telephone number, email address and credit/debit card details.

Storing and Sharing Information

Any information we receive from you, either by entering it on our Web-Site, in writing, by email, by fax, over the telephone or by other means will be stored by us and we will take all reasonable care to keep your personal data secure and to prevent any unauthorised access to it.

We do not store financial information.

We may use this information to contact you by email telephone or post to provide you with details about our products or services, about employment opportunities with us or any other information which we believe may be of interest to you. It is intended that by providing information about yourself to us you consent to its use for the above purposes. Other than as required by law or in the prevention of fraud, we will not pass information we hold about you to any other organisation (except subsidiaries, parent companies or associated companies), but it is intended that any consent given above will benefit any purchaser of our business.

Security

Other information transmitted over the internet may be open to scrutiny by others. However, when you purchase on-line, your credit/debit card details will be encrypted to help keep them confidential.

Caring for your purchase

Always refer to the operating care and maintenance instructions in relation to each product. Read the labels if label is damaged please contact us

Product Descriptions

We have made every effort to display as accurately as possible the colours of our products that appear on this Web Site. However we cannot guarantee that your monitor's display of any colour will accurately reflect the colour of the actual product. While we try to be as accurate as possible, all sizes, weights and measurements quoted are approximate.

The products sold on this Web Site have been designed to comply with the health and safety laws of the UK and we cannot warrant or represent that they comply with any health safety or other legal requirement outside the UK
